HEARTS THAT BEAT AS ONE.

The Record of Marriages in Holt County for the Year 1909--112 Couples Plight Their Faith.

There are more divorces granted in the United States every year than in any other country on earth except Japan. The recorded divorces during the year 1903 were 70,000, and in 1900 nearly 200,000 divorced persons were living in this country.

The second statistical investigation of marriage and divorce authorized by the federal government, in this case covering from 1887 to 1906, completes the record of 40 years, and enables interested students of the evolution of American family life to consider the record of a generation. That divorce is two and one-half times as common in the United States as it was 40 years ago, and that one marriage in 12 nowadays ends in divorce, are conclusions reached by officials of the census bureau.

We are told that the percentages of divorces both to the married and to total population shows a steady increase during the period 1887-1906 as compared with the previous 20-year period; also that the total number of divorces was 945,625 in the later period against 328,716 in the earlier one.

There are, in Maine, strange to say according to the national census bureau, a greater number of divorces in which drunkenness is given as the direct cause than in any other state, with the single exception of Connecticut. The percentage of divorces granted in which drunkenness or intemperance is given as the cause for the whole United States is of women, 1.1; of men, 5.3. In Maine the percentage is; of women, 3.3; of men, 16.9.

In our own county our records show an increase in marriage troubles, as the decade 1890 to 1899 there were 1,408 marriages, and 90 divorces, or one divorce to every 15 marriages while the decade 1900 to 1909 we had 1,239 marriages and 105 divorces, or one divorce to each 11 marriages.

In Missouri there are 1,595,710 men and 1,510,955 women. Unmarried men, 969,331 and unmarried women, 829,582. There are nearly twice as many widows as widowers, and there are 25 per cent more divorced women than men.

The white women of the state are less illiterate than the men.

A number of the nuptial knots could not be tied without first asking Pa or Ma, and been on some their consent to a great deal of the ladies, than young men, is some betid parents said "Yes, We hope for a fine man: E. H. Cooper, J. K. G. Jetter, Alonzo O. Hanks, Orin Headley, Wylie Kieffer, Roy Travis, Harry McGinnis, Alvin C. Greiner, John Montgomery and Ernest Mitchell.

Young ladies—Violet Loos, Nettie A. Kay, Edna Sipes, Agnes Caton, Ulrica Oglesbee, Oma Holtsclaw, Iva Coyle, Eliza Winger, Bessie Adolph, Irene Stephenson, Edith Minshall and Mamie Combs.

The first marriage license issued during the year was to Ward Everett, of Craig, and Mary Drago, of Fairfax.

The last license of the year was issued December 31st, to Calvert Ross and Mamie Combs.

There were two Christmas weddings: Casper Driver and Miss Ruby Crist; Robert Heck and Sidney R. Nay.

The number of marriage licenses issued during the year 1909, reached a total of 112, which is one more than were issued in 1908; and 30 less than were issued in 1907, and eight more than were issued in 1906.

The greatest number this year, 1909, was issued during December, 16, with February a close second with 13.
